

The 11th Biennial NZACT Conference View from the Capital, Wellington, 2009

Name: _____

Institution: _____

Indicate your workshop choices in the following sections by ranking your preferred choices as 1st, 2nd, etc. Workshop numbers may be limited by room capacity and if some workshops are oversubscribed you may be directed to your second choice.

Workshop 1

A modern Aeneid Odyssey
Teaching Classical Studies for beginning teachers
Zen and the art of Socrates
The standards review process - an update for Classical Studies

Workshop 2

Task differentiation - lifting the ceiling and providing a ladder
A tour of vases and coins in the Logie Collection as a basis for teaching Vase Painting at Year 13
Classics trips made Ezi - leading a school trip to Greece and Italy

Workshop 3

Teaching the key competency of Thinking in Classical Studies
Roman architecture
Thucydides in Classical Studies
Primary evidence in Social Life in Athens

Workshop 4

The Moderation process - task design and judgment
The tradition of teaching Latin
Roman epic
Using IT in Classical Studies

If you have indicated that you are attending the Conference Dinner please indicate if you require a vegetarian option.

Vegetarian
------------	--